PUBLIC HEALTH ACTIVITIES:

Dr. Kliman founded and directed three nonprofit organizations for emotionally disturbed children and their families – The Center for Preventive Psychiatry, Inc. in New York (1965-1978), The Foster Care Study Unit at Dept. of Child Psychiatry, Columbia U. (1983-1987), and The Children’s Psychological Health Center, Inc. in San Francisco (1992-ongoing).

He has had over 50 television and radio appearances: Barbara Walters, Straight Talk, Today Show, 20/20 program, PBS, KRON-TV, KFAS, KQED, and Channel II, San Francisco (Fox News) —all regarding effects on the general population and children in particular of stressful events. These talks have included presidential assassination, the Challenger space shuttle disaster, Loma Prieta earthquake, the Columbine shootings, mass disasters, trauma, child development and family mental health. Dr. Kliman's work in public health aspects of psychological trauma has been the subject of cover stories and feature articles in The New York Times Magazine Section, Family Health, and Parents Magazine. He is a frequent speaker at public health organizations concerning traumatic deaths, family stressors and foster care. His professional publications include books and peer-reviewed medical journal articles on mass disasters, most recently concerning the Attack on America.

He was extensively interviewed in 1997 by CBS Dallas TV regarding psychiatric testimony concerning eleven altar boys, testimony which had resulted in a record-making jury verdict against the Archdiocese of Dallas. In April, 1998, Dr. Kliman was interviewed by Channel Four anchorwoman, Linda Yee, concerning his Salvation Army project providing the Cornerstone form of psychoanalytic psychotherapy for homeless preschoolers and toddlers. The Cornerstone project itself was viewed on the Channel II Five O'Clock News. KGO TV interviewed Dr. Kliman concerning a forensic testimony, with a focus on a Stanford football player who had allegedly become a child molester. During the Lewinsky-Clinton matter, Kliman was interviewed by Channel 12/20 concerning psychoanalytic views of leaders having exceptional sexual access to partners and the risk of a position of power overcoming the judgments of such leaders. During 2001 following the World Trade Building terrorism, Dr. Kliman was interviewed by Channel II News and appeared on five occasions thereafter through 2003 concerning the Afghanistan and Iraq wars. In May 2003, he was discussant with U.N. Secretary General Olaru Otonu, featured on Dhubai Business TV concerning the plight of children in war.

Following the hurricane disasters of 2005 he collaborated with Mercy Corps and the Children's Psychological Health Center to produce a mental health resource. The result, "My Katrina and Rita Story", a guided activity resource of families who had to deal with the hurricanes. Mercy Corps is distributing copies to 20,000 families.

In 2008, RE DISASTER SERVICES: Following the Sichuan Earthquake Disaster of May 12, 2008, Dr. Kliman established a link between Children's Psychological Health Center, Inc., Mercy Corps, and The China America Psychoanalytic Alliance. He created mental health resources (see Publications) which were licensed for mass distribution in China by Mercy Corps. In 2008, Dr. Kliman helped found a new non-profit organization called Teach with Africa and is a member of its Board of Directors.
